An Evening of Vaudeville and Vintage Burlesque!

Burlington, VT - The tang of burlesque is rampant in this always-evolving theatrical presentation filled with rip-roaring musical numbers, naughty innuendos, cunning commentary and dazzling dancehall floozies.

Take a journey out of time with Max, the foolhardy emcee, a dozen exquisite dancing ladies and a motley troupe of satirists all backed by a rowdy and rollicking house orchestra. With saucy cigar girls, decorous decadence and Weimar style wit, this unique troupe of degenerates guarantees a playful, sassy cabaret featuring burlesque and vaudeville at its very best!

The Spielpalast Cabaret will once again transform the Black Box Theater at Main Street Landing Performing Arts Center into a raucous theater of the absurd for 9 performances on May 14-16, 21, 22 & 27-29. And, for those looking for a more titillating experience, the tremendously popular scandalous version of the show has been expanded to two performances: May 16 at 8pm and May 22 at 11pm.

Performances will begin at 8pm with the exception of May 22, which will have both an 8pm performance and a late night scandalous performance at 11pm. All shows include a cocktail hour featuring pre-show entertainment and a cash bar beginning one hour prior to show time.

Tickets for the 2010 production of "Spielpalast Cabaret" are $20 Advance/$25 Day of Show and available through the Flynn Regional Box Office at 153 Main Street in Burlington, (802) 86-FLYNN, or www.flynntix.org. Pending availability, tickets will also be available for sale at the venue on the night of show beginning one hour prior to show time. We anticipate that most shows will sell out in advance, so tickets should be purchased early to avoid disappointment. And remember, Grandma and Grandpa will love the show, but leave the kiddies at home!
